The FCC needs to consider how best to deal with restrictive covenants that impact on amateur radio operators, many of whom support RACES/ARES activities that ultimately support our communities. The idea that antennas are not allowed in planned communities and those that have HOA restrictions needs to be revisited.

Kent Kester
KC3SRB